Review of the Policy of Export of Cotton/Cotton Yarn

1083. SHRI RAJUBHAI A. PARMAR: Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any proposal under consideration of Government to review the policy of exporting cotton/cotton yarn;

(b) whether the prices of cotton/cotton yarn are increasing at present; and

(c) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF TEXTILES (SHRI ASHOK GEHLOT): (a) No, Sir.

(b) The prices of certain varieties of cotton/cotton yarn have shown a slight upward movement recently.

(c) while the slight upward movement in cotton prices can be attributed to absence of rains in certain parts of the country, the upward movement in cotton yarn prices is due to the upward movement in cotton prices and the general price rise.

Centre's Intervention to meet the demand of Cotton Growers in Andhra Pradesh
